New Business:

- Thank you to all who volunteered to decorate the stage for the Christmas program. Thank you to Mrs. Cook for attending on behalf of the teachers.
- Announcements
 1. Mr. Hodge informed us that the white board installation is temporarily on hold due to asbestos removal from the previous chalkboards.
 2. Many thank yous were received from the teachers and administration for the donations made to their classrooms.
- Teacher Announcements

Mrs. Cook thanked the PTO for the donations as well.
- Approval of November Minutes

Lynn Wood motioned to approve. Jocelyn Rockey seconded. Motion approved.
- Old Business
 - Wine tasting made a record high of $2,234.00 before expenses. Thank you to the teachers, Jackie Morris, and Jenny Sandborn for putting together the gift baskets.
 - All teacher request items were ordered, except the science desk for Mr. Smith. This is temporarily on hold.
 - A total of $1, 292.80 was received on January 8th. The next submission due date is the end of February and has been put in the school newsletter.
- New Business
 - Audra Pline will be in charge of the Catholic Schools' Week breakfast. It will be held on Monday, January 29th. She needs help preparing, serving, and cleaning up. The sign up sheet is on the table. Three parents signed up! All set.
 - Wish list delivering crew will deliver gifts on Tuesday, January 30th at 6:00. It will take approximately thirty minutes to make the deliveries.
 - We will continue our $200.00 donation to the St. Patrick's auction, as we have done in years past.
 - We are still awaiting confirmation as to whether or not help is needed for the soup dinner.
